Weekly Newsletter—17th November 2017

News and Events:

Christmas Jumper Day

We will be marking National Christmas Jumper Day on Friday 15th December by asking the children to wear their jumpers and make a donation to the Save the Children charity.

Christmas Craft day

On Tuesday 5th December we will be joining the pupils from Wray Endowed School for a craft day over at Wray School. The children will be transported via the school bus and the cluster mini bus at 9am and returned for the end of the school day by 3:30pm. There will be no family assembly on that day. See attached letter for further details.

Christmas Lunch and Party

This will take place on Wednesday 20th December with the children helping to prepare the lunch. We are asking for a donation of £3 per child to help cover the cost. This can be paid online.

Parents Evening

Please complete and return the attached form. Mrs O'Brien (SENCo) and Mrs Norton-Smith will be available during the afternoon to speak to parents if required. Appointments will be made on a first come first served basis.
