News and Events:

Emmetts Kid's Club Christmas Party

Kid's Club will be having a Christmas Party on Tuesday, 3.30-5pm. This is open to all children whether you usually go to club or not.

Christmas Jumper Day

We will be marking National Christmas Jumper Day on Friday 15th December by asking the children to wear their jumpers and make a donation to the Save the Children charity.

Awards Assembly

Awards assembly will take place on Tuesday 19th December at 2.45pm for a celebration of this term. All are welcome to attend.

Christmas Lunch and Party

This will take place on Wednesday 20th December with the children helping to prepare the lunch. We are asking for a donation of £3 per child to help cover the cost. This can be paid online.

Nursery children are invited to the Christmas Lunch and welcome to stay afterwards for a visit by Father Christmas. Please let us know if your child will be attending by filling in the attached slip.

Messages from the teachers :

Mrs Wright:

Please could we have all costumes for the nativity in
as soon as possible so we can start dress rehearsals.

Mr Corbett:

Could costumes for the play come in next week. We have discussed with the children what they could wear but if you are unsure then please contact me to discuss.

Celebration Corner:

Happy Birthday to Kaitlyn who turned 5 this week.

I would like my Nursery Child.....to attend the Christmas
Lunch in School and to stay afterwards for the visit by Father Christmas.

Signed.....
