Breakfast Club

Please remember that breakfast club is now a request only service. If you require breakfast club please contact school by the end of the day on the Tuesday to book for the following week. There will be a member of staff on duty on the playground from 8:30am each morning.

Author Visit

On Tuesday 24th April we are going to Quernmore School where the children's author Liz Kesler will talk about her Emily Windsnap series. There will be a selection of titles to buy at a cost of £6 on the day (RRP £6.99) or any 3 for £16.

Lexia

We are having a real push on reading this term and would like to remind you about Lexia the web-based reading program that we use in school. Please find attached an information letter with login details and instructions. If you have any problems logging in at home please speak to Mr Corbett or Mrs Wright.

Acceptable use agreement

Please find attached an agreement to be signed by pupils and parents about use of ICT and the internet. Please take some time to read this through and discuss it with your child. Once signed forms should be returned to school. Thank you.

Messages from the teachers:

Mrs Wright:

Please could I remind parents to continue to listen to their children reading at home.

Thank you.

Mr Corbett: We are working on World War 2 and it would be interesting if children could talk to parents and grandparents about what it was like for them and their role in it etc.

Celebration Corner:

Our stars of the week are:

Sam F & Olivia A

Year 3 shared their work during Assembly. Excellent work on Solids and liquids in science, persuasive writing in literacy and finding out all about Sport Relief.

Happy birthday Ruby.
